

Priests and Seminarians Join K of C

April 2, 2008

3 Priests and 22 Seminarians from St. John's Seminary in Brighton, Mass joined the Knights of Columbus and were initiated into their 1st, 2nd and 3rd degrees of the Order.

Newly initiated Knights from St John's Seminary and Priests join Cardinal Sean O'Malley after degrees with the Mass. State Board. State Deputy Vincent Rumasuglia presented two checks to Cardinal O'Malley from the State and Supreme councils for the Archdiocese's fight to support the Marriage Initiative in the state of Massachusetts which is the program to educate people about marriage.

Left to Right - Past State Deputy Dick Guerriero, Fr. Philip Merdinger (Brotherhood of Hope), State Treasurer Mike Baldner, State Deputy Vincent Rumasuglia, Cardinal Sean O'Malley, Past State Deputy Tom Ledbetter, Rector of St John's Seminary Fr Arthur Kennedy, State Secretary Bill Donovan, Fr. John J. Ronaghan (Pastor of St. Ann's Quincy). Fathers Merdinger, Kennedy and Ronaghan joined the ranks of Knighthood.